

Consignment Sales

Stahly is the leader in truck based floaters ... our large following and contacts means more for your trade-in, or sell your truck-based applicators faster and for more money on consignment! Customers who are on the fence often have us sell their trade for "Top Dollar" prior to finalizing a deal on a new unit.

The big three and used dealers specialize in ground up rigs. Our expertise is truck based dry, liquid and air machines. We have a huge network of customers in every price range and style for pre-owned equipment across the country.
